WILLITON WATCHET & QUANTOCK AREA

Now that the nights are drawing in people who cycle to school or work on their bikes should make sure that they are illuminated, wearing high visibility clothing and lights on their bikes.

With fuel being in high demand and the costs rising please make sure that sheds and outbuildings that have fuel canisters or easy to siphon machinery are secured.

There is a talking café in Williton every Tuesday at the Williton memorial grounds for those to go and engage with others, speak to the village agents and PCSO's attend frequently.

We attend a forget me not cafe once a fortnight on Wednesdays at the church rooms in Stogursey the next meet is on the 13th of October 10:30-12:00.

Shop keepers please be aware now that the Halloween season is upon us be mindful of those who you sell eggs and beans to, to prevent Anti Social Behaviour, This also goes for selling Fireworks,

Fireworks should only be used between 7am-11pm on normal nights, However on the 5th November they can be used until Midnight.

CELEBRATION OF EXCELLENCE

3 of our team were recognised for their commitment to Policing. Inspector Griffiths and Sergeant Jenkins were both awarded their long service medals and PCSO Thompson was awarded a Certificate of Excellence for her commitment in her role as PCSO.

Awards were presented by Superintendent Turner and Chief Inspector French.

SCHOOL PATROLS AND ENGAGEMENT

Now that schools are in a new year the local PCSO's have returned back to the school sites for school patrols and engagement.

School charter's are in place for PCSO's to engage with the students in the coming year.

There will be enforcement for those who park their vehicles in prohibited areas.

Parking Buddies will be used for road safety as they are engaging for the students.

Beat Surgeries and Upcoming Events
Make sure to check out the Neighbourhood Facebook page for Bike Marking events.
If you would like us to attend the local village events please contact us.
Please let us know in advance and we will do our best to attend.
