Dulverton Youth Club Bike Marking

PCSO Michelle attended Dulverton Youth Club for a bike safety and bike marking session. Pictured are some of the children from the Youth club who had a great time meeting Michelle.

Horse and Farm Watch

If you have a small holding a Farm or Horse's please consider joining our free Farm and Horse Watch it's a really good way of keeping informed about any suspicious activity going on in your area. Recently a good example is we had a report regarding a suspicious vehicle in and around the Selworthy area, this was put out over the Rural mailing system for the members of these schemes which meant they could keep an eye out for suspicious activity

Retirement-PCSO Bryan Stevens

We say goodbye to Bryan who is retiring at the end of July. Bryan was kindly given a cake and certificate from the children and staff at Cutcombe school to say Thank you. 😊 I'm sure all those that know Bryan will miss him in our community he has been a huge part of the Dulverton Beat for many years. Goodbye Bryan we will miss you.

Keeping your valuables safe

When out and about enjoying the lovely weather and visiting one of our local beauty spot areas please consider what items you have left in the car, please put items out of sight or ideally take them with you. PCSO's will be out and about visiting the beauty spot locations and offering motorists advice and a leaflet regarding keeping your items safe.

We have had a few break in's to vehicles in the local areas. Please be extra vigilant and report any suspicious behaviour to 101 or 999 dependant on the situation.

Keep up to date

Facebook and Twitter are a great way to keep up to date with your local Neighbourhood Policing team. Follow us on:

PCSO's will be out and about checking beauty spots in the area, encouraging people not to leave belongings on display. Offering crime prevention.

LOCAL PRIORITIES

Beauty Spot Patrols

PCSO's will be patrolling the beauty spots around Exmoor with crime prevention, we ask people to be extra cautious when leaving their vehicles unattended and ensure that items are not left on display.

Speeding

We are always looking for potential speed watches in the local villages, if you are interested please contact your local PCSO. We are listening to your concerns and we have had discussions with Road Policing areas are being monitored through our speed detection units.

Drink Driving

We take drink driving very seriously and if you are aware of anyone drinking and driving it is vitally important that this is reported to us. If at all possible it needs to be reported at the time but if not possible after is ok, please provide as much detail as you can registration and description or name of the driver if known. You can report to us on 101 or online. Or at Crimestoppers 0800 555 111
